

Volunteers of the Centro di Barrio Ayo host a breakfast for the elderly at the Calypso Restaurant

It was a fun Monday morning and a great way to start the week for the elderly retirees of the Magdalene group from the Centro di Barrio Ayo. Every Monday they are welcomed to the community center by volunteers that conduct enjoyable activities like bingo or domino tournaments or field trips. This week they were treated to a ride on the unique Banana Bus, which took them to the doors of the Casa Del Mar resort to enjoy a seaside buffet breakfast at the Calypso Restaurant. Restaurant owners Karel Castro and Ricardo welcomed the group of fifty, and all enjoyed the great selection of breakfast foods, with a smiling chef Jenny making the fresh omelets of their choice. Since the Magdalene group receives no financial assistance aside from the occasional donation they finance the trip by selling offering the Magdalene members raffle books, and for the price of a book they could join in the field trip, and perhaps win back their investment, and more during a drawing next week. Whether their name is drawn or not, they enjoyed themselves so much, they already felt like winners!
